

Technique dependent conventions - VLBI

Axel Nothnagel

The presentation will deal with VLBI-specific aspects of the Conventions which have and had an effect on past and future VLBI products. Special emphasis will be given to the representation of non-linear station motion. In addition, a proposal will be made for a new parametrization of local ties which clearly distinguishes between geometric ties and technique dependent effects.