

DRAFT Agenda for the 32nd meeting of the CCT

Venue: Pavillon du Mail, BIPM, Sèvres, France, with the possibility to attend online
Thursday 21 to Friday 22 May 2026

Meeting begins at 9:00 on 21 May (UTC+2,CET) and ends at 13:30 on 22 May 2026

1. Welcome by the CCT President, Dr Dolores del Campo, and the Director of the BIPM, Dr Annette Koo
2. Approval of the agenda
3. Approval of Rapporteur
4. Tribute to Pieter Bloembergen and Michael Moldover
5. Status of actions targeted at the 31st meeting of the CCT
6. News from the BIPM
7. Highlights on Working and Task Groups progress
Coffee Break
8. Approval of the updated CCT strategy
9. Report on the activities of the Forum on Metrology and Digitalization
10. Digitalization progress at the BIPM SI Reference Point
11. Celebratory seminar of 100 years of temperature scales
 - a. The emergence of temperature scales from pre-1600s to ITS-90 – Graham Machin
 - b. The formation of the ITS-90 – reminiscences and reflections – Richard Rusby
 - c. The redefinition of the kelvin – Christof Gaiser
 - d. The impact of changing temperature scales on the climate record – Andrea Merlone
 - e. Future of temperature traceability – beyond ITS-90 – Patrick Rourke and Jon PearceEnd of the 1st Day
12. Highlights on CCT Comparisons
13. Highlights on RMOs
14. Report on the activities of the STG-ENV
15. Seminar on the definition of uncertainty
16. AOB (SASO presentation)
17. Approval of open access documentation
18. Next CCT meeting
19. Closure of the 32nd meeting of the CCT