

INEN (Ecuador) - infrared thermometers without contact for clinical diagnosis

From Ecuador, through the Ecuadorian Standardization Service (INEN), a Document has been developed regarding (INFRARED THERMOMETERS WITHOUT CONTACT FOR CLINICAL DIAGNOSIS) and dissemination talks oriented to Metrology and specific topics to Covid - 19 and the metrology day event, Step to detail the following:

1. Metrological Concepts differentiates between calibration, adjustment and verification
2. Management, use and disinfection of gas tanks
3. Non-contact infrared thermometers for clinical diagnosis
4. Basic Metrology
5. Consumption and energy saving in the home sector during quarantine
6. The new International System of Units
7. Magnitudes and Units used in Chemistry applying the SI
8. Good Weighing Practices
9. Interpretation and use of calibration certificates
10. Introduction to Pressure Metrology

Link download presentations

<https://www.dropbox.com/s/sa14rpq5579sfao/Presentaciones%20LNM%20INEN.rar?dl=0>

Link metrology day 2020

<https://www.normalizacion.gob.ec/te-invitas-a-participar-en-la-jornada-de-conferencias-virtuales-por-el-dia-mundial-de-la-metrologia-que-el-inen-has-prepared-for-you/>