

The CIPM Election Process

18th October 2017

Jim McLaren
CIPM Secretary

Bureau
♦ International des
♦ Poids et
♦ Mesures

Steps in the Election Process

---

- Call to the Member States for nominations
- Assembly of nomination documents by the CIPM Secretary, with assistance from the BIPM
- Distribution of the assembled information to the CIPM and the Committee for CIPM Elections (CEC) for review
- Review of the nominations by the CIPM to develop a list of "preferred candidates" for consideration by the (CEC)
- Review of the nomination documents and the list of "preferred candidates" by the CEC

Assessment Criteria for CIPM Candidates

---

- Scientific expertise
- Leadership experience
- Commitment to teamwork
- Communication skills
- Financial management skills
- Personal commitment
- Government support / relationship with NMI/NMS

The Committee for CIPM Elections (CEC)

---

Mr Robert Gunn (UK) Chair

Dr Sergey Golubev (Russia)

Dr Arne Hoell (Germany)

Mme Corinne Lagauterie (France)

Dr Yukinobu Miki (Japan)

Mr Ndwakhulu Mukhufi (South Africa)

Dr Claudia Santo (Uruguay)

Dr Claire Saundry (USA)

Steps in the Process (continued)

---

- Feedback from the CEC to the CIPM Secretary, possibly including changes to the list of "preferred candidates"
- Agreement between the CIPM and CEC on a "slate" of candidates to be recommended to the participants at the CGPM meeting
- Election of the new CIPM at the CGPM meeting

Suggested Dates for the 2018 CIPM Election Process

---

- Call for nominations - Mar. 1, 2018, with a deadline of Apr. 30
- Submission of list of “preferred candidates” to the CEC by the CIPM – Jun. 30, 2018
- Feedback to the CIPM by the CEC – Sep. 1, 2018
- Agreement on the “slate” of candidates – Sep. 30, 2018
- Election of the new CIPM – Nov. 2018