Note: The BIPM has its own salary scales. Grades and steps are not linked or equivalent to other international organization systems (i.e., UN or other).
ALLOWANCES AND BENEFITS

Entitlements based on various criteria, including those of a family character.

Installation allowance
- Granted to staff members whose main residence prior to arrival at the BIPM has been located for more than 6 consecutive months more than 100 kilometers away from the BIPM and was under the obligation to buy or rent a dwelling place in the neighborhood of the BIPM to perform his duties.
- Thus, this allowance is not paid to staff members accommodated at the BIPM in its apartments.
- Its amount is 1 month of the member’s gross salary as a minimum, subject to conditions.
- For staff entitled to an installation allowance, payment of their transport costs, as well as those of their spouse or partner and any dependent children, from their place of residence to the BIPM Headquarters on taking up their duties.

Relocation allowance
- For staff members entitled to an installation allowance, at the time of taking up their duties and, if they have worked for the BIPM for more than 24 consecutive months, at the time of leaving the BIPM, payment of their removal expenses from their place of residence to the BIPM Headquarters and back.

Rent allowance
- Monthly allowance for all staff members with a grade of 9 or lower.
- As of 1 January 2024, it corresponds to € 131.81 per month up to and including grade 8 and € 79.36 per month for grade 9. It is increased by 10% per dependent child.
- This allowance is not paid to staff members accommodated at the BIPM in its apartments.

Household allowance
- Monthly allowance for any staff member with at least one dependent child or, failing that, whose spouse or partner receives a gross income, subject to certain conditions.
- The amount is € 310.70 per month as of 1 January 2024.

Family allowance
- Granted to staff members for each dependent child. The monthly amount is € 381.98 per dependent child as of 1 January 2024.

ALLOWANCES FOR EXPATRIATE STAFF MEMBERS

Expatriation allowance
- For expatriate staff entitled to household allowance, amount equal to 25% of gross salary up to a maximum of € 19,525.36 per year, for 2024.
- For expatriate staff not entitled to household allowance, amount equal to 20% of gross salary, but with a ceiling of € 15,791.64 per year, for 2024.

Education allowance
- For expatriate staff only, up to the 25th birthday of the dependent child.
- The amount paid is subject to conditions and is equal to 70% of the educational expenses actually paid by the staff member but may not exceed three times the amount of the family allowance for each child per year.

Home-leave allowance
- Granted every 2 years to expatriate staff members, this allowance covers the cost of a return journey for the staff member, his/her spouse or partner and dependent children residing in France, in the country in which they resided prior to the staff member’s recruitment by the BIPM or of which they are a national.
HEALTH INSURANCE

- The BIPM is not affiliated to any national general health insurance scheme. It subscribes to a private health insurance scheme for all staff members, from the first day of employment, and, on an optional and limited basis, for their spouse, partner, and dependent children.
- This insurance scheme provides coverage against the risks of illness and accident, both work-related and non-work-related, resulting in death, temporary or permanent disability.
- As of 1 January 2024, the monthly contribution of the principal insured to the insurance is 4.754% of his/her gross salary and €11.43 per year for the funeral cover.

PENSION SCHEME

- The BIPM offers participation in a defined benefit Pension Fund for all staff.
- All staff members are entitled to a BIPM retirement pension after completing 7 years of service. For less than 7 years of service, a severance grant is paid.
- The rate applicable to contributions to the Pension Fund is 15% of gross salary for staff members since 2017.

PRIVILEGES & IMMUNITIES

- BIPM staff members are international civil servants and enjoy certain privileges and immunities in the exercise of their functions on French territory.
- BIPM staff members are exempt from tax by the French Government on the salaries and emoluments paid to them by the Bureau. However, the French Government reserves the right to consider these salaries and emoluments for the calculation of the effective or average rate to be applied to the income from other sources of its own nationals as well as of permanent residents in France.
