

Biennial activity report from AQMLM

Organization Name:	Association for Quality Management in Laboratory Medicine (AQMLM)
JCTLM Member status:	Stakeholder Member
Author(s):	Dr Jonathan Middle
Author(s) email(s):	drjgmiddle@gmail.com
Period covered:	2022 – 2023

1. Major achievement(s) in support of standardization in laboratory medicine

Not applicable to AQMLM

2. Planned activity(ies) in support of standardization in laboratory medicine

Not applicable to AQMLM

3. Promoting traceability in laboratory medicine

AQMLM hosted 20 Zoom meetings during 2022 & 2023. With regard to traceability and standardization, the most relevant were:

Zoom 36 - "Are You Still Uncertain About Uncertainty?"	12th October 2023
Zoom 35 - "Ensuring data quality throughout the management system" -	13th September 2023
Zoom 28 - "Harmonisation of Results and Units - Benefits & Risks" -	17th January 2023
Zoom 26 - "Getting the most out of your EQA reports" -	26th October 2022
Zoom 23 - "Validation & Verification Re-Visited" -	21st June 2022

4. Reference laboratory networks /collaborations focusing on developing /implementing reference measurement systems

Dr Jonathan Middle (Chair AQMLM) and Dr Gwen Wark (Director AQMLM) sit on ISO TC 212 Working Groups and the British Standards Institute CH 212 mirror committee. These Working Groups have been involved in revision of ISO 15189, ISO 17511, ISO 15193, ISO 15194, ISO 15195 and preparation of ISO TS 20914 during 2022 & 2023.

5. Open questions and suggestions to be addressed by JCTLM

None